GAUCHOS IN PRACTICE FOR BALL SEASON

Suits were checked out last week to a few ambitious baseball candidates who wish to rush the season and get in a little early season practice. Narbonne's prospects are pretty fair with several lettermen back from last year's varsity. The loss of Santich, Stitts, Ables, Powers and others will weaken the team considerably as these players were the heavy hitters last year. As many players are still out for track the baseball practice is only held three nights a week. About 15 men have checked out suits so far and more will undoubtedly come out later on.

TRIANGULAR MEET GOES TO BANNING

The Gaucha nine has already broken even with Redondo in a two game series and the Gaucha junior varsity has also defeated Redondo's second string. Among the most promising men out are catcher, Blumenthal, Bugraffe, Kelly and Markham, pitchers; Aspitte and Murphy, first base; Kelly, Keith and Day, second base; Blumenthal and Pennington, short; Clayton and Miller, third base; outfielders are Hirata, Dallape, Wolverton, Altman, Pennington, Dingman, Carpenter and Bunce. Several practice games have been lined up both for the varsity and junior varsity teams.

WILL COMPETE AT EL MONTE ON SATURDAY

Torrance Squad Will Attend Invitational Junior Olympics Tryout. Torrance high school will be represented Saturday at El Monte by twelve young athletes who are being selected for places on the Junior Olympic teams which will compete at Los Angeles in June for many worthwhile prizes, among them being a trip to New York and an ocean cruise to follow.

El Monte is putting on a program of events open to applicants to Junior Olympic honors, and representatives will be there from many of the Southern California schools. This will be an invitational meet and has no bearing on the regular Junior Olympic meet except as it will serve to show the merits of each competitor.

Among the Torrance lads who are showing considerable promise in the preliminary tryouts are Dale Howe, Prentice Johnson, Hal Smith, Truman Waugh, Lee Allen of the Junior division; and Susum Ishikawa, Joe Lisoni Billy Acree, Hitoshi Hitada, Vladimir Miconovich in the senior division.

Salvationists Pray for Kussia, Says Brig. J. C. Bell

Salvation Army soldiers and officers will devote next Sunday, March 16, to prayer for the oppressed religionists of Russia, according to Brig. James C. Bell, commanding officer of the Los Angeles and South Coast division. This movement is pursuant to a call issued last week by Commander Evangeline Booth of the American forces.

"While there are Christian people not permitted to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, Salvationists cannot rest with ease," the brigadier stated. "For though the Soviets have slackened a little in their original demands, yet there is much which remains to be done in the way of real religious liberty in the great Russian country. Our hearts go out to the men and women who would, if able, serve and worship God in simplicity."

Every one of the 23 corps in this division as well as all the other thousands of corps in the United States, will spend Sunday in solemn prayer for the Russians. The regular services will be held in the corps of this city, both morning and evening.

LONG BEACH—(UP)—A dahlia with a bloom measuring 5 1/2 inches across is in full blossom in the yard of Dr. H. A. Mossman here.
